Religious Give Thanks

"Thank you" hardly seems adequate to convey what it means to us," says a Catholic sister of the financial assistance her community received from the Retirement Fund for Religious. Prayer-filled thanks for your donation to last week's second collection.

Third Sunday of Advent

Matthew 11:2-11

When John the Baptist heard in prison of the works of the Christ, he sent his disciples to Jesus with this question, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" Jesus said to them in reply, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them. And blessed is the one who takes no offense at me." As they were going off, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John, "What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? Then what did you go out to see? Someone dressed in fine clothing? Those who wear fine clothing are in royal palaces. Then why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you. Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

Thank You for the Support!

Our annual Christmas Bazaar was a big success and we are grateful to everyone who supported it! Thank you to Christmas Bazaar co-chairs Amy Alexander and Kim Flanagan for hosting a wonderful event!

Toiletry Collection for the Homeless

Fr. Jim Galluzzo and his team collect travel size toiletries to share with the homeless. Please drop your donations in the wicker basket in the church vestibule.

For more information, contact Maureen at neeruam_1@yahoo.com

Neighborhood House operates the largest food pantry on Portland's west side and they need our help! They provide emergency food boxes to approximately 500 families. There is a wicker container in the church vestibule where you can share your donations of canned or boxed food. Some suggestions include peanut butter, tuna fish, jam, and honey. Help us feed those in need!

ST. THOMAS MORE MEN'S GROUP

The STMMG invites you to get involved with Jesuit Alumni Food Drive

Jesuit High School is having its annual Alumni Food Drive on Saturday, December 21st. Over 1,200 boxes of food are delivered to those in need- this is a huge operation and they could use our help!

The St. Thomas More Men's Group has been asked to once again assist with Food Drive clean-up. We will be removing all the cardboard that is discarded from the food boxes. Our scheduled shift is from 8:00 am to 10:00 am. We will meet and work near the Jesuit High School flagpole, located near the baseball field. Please park in the lot next to the tennis courts and look for Jeff Smith (who will be wearing cowboy hat) to find out where you can best help. For this activity, we invite all STM men, women, and kids to help. Breakfast is served for all involved. We hope to see a ton of STM representation!

Worldwide MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER:

Spiritual Reflection

Advent is a time of longing. It is a time to recognize that in all our hopes and dreams we are reaching out for the “one who is to come.” To use the words of St. Augustine, Advent is a time to “exercise our desire” for God.

In this Sunday’s Gospel, John the Baptist and his disciples express their longing for a Messiah when they ask Jesus if he is the “one who is to come.” How does Jesus respond? He simply recounts to them what they have seen. The sick are healed, the blind are given their sight, and the poor have the Good News preached to them. Jesus was the one Isaiah had foretold would come and the one John had prepared the way for. He was the one who would bring an eternal kingdom.

Over 2,000 years after the birth of Jesus, many in our world still await a Messiah. They are imprisoned in ignorance, abusive situations, poverty, or their own sinful choices. They are looking to us to answer this question for them: “Is Jesus the one we are waiting for? Is Jesus the one who can save us?”

How are we to answer them? What can we point to in our lives to show that God is at work in the world, freeing us from sin, changing lives, and bringing peace?

They know that the world cannot offer them what they truly desire, but they are also not yet convinced that Jesus is the answer. They want to see what difference a life lived in relationship with God makes. Will they be able to see that by looking at us?

Each of us, through Baptism and Confirmation, has received the Holy Spirit. This same Spirit empowered Jesus to preach the Good News to the poor and to perform miracles. This same Spirit raised Jesus from the dead. Because the Holy Spirit dwells within us, Jesus can say in today’s Gospel that the least in his kingdom is greater than John the Baptist. John the Baptist probably never understood that Jesus would die for his sins. He never read the New Testament. He never received the Eucharist as we do. And so, we have a power at work in our lives that even he could not understand.

Like the priests, prophets, and kings of the Old Testament, we have received an anointing. It is now time for us to put that power of God to work serving others so that the world can see for itself what difference a life lived for Jesus makes. Only by seeing our lives transformed by the peace which only God can give will the world come to know that Jesus alone provides the answers that the people of today are seeking.

Where do we begin? We begin right here and right now with the people around us. It is by showing kindness every day to the people we bump into that the transformation can start. If I can hold a door open for someone or say a kind word to a teenager, then I will have an open heart for the beggar who asks me for change or the hitchhiker who needs a lift to the gas station. Our acts of mercy will leave people wondering what motivates us to be so kind. Through our goodness, they will come to know Jesus who is the source of all goodness. And knowing him, they will have grasped the answer to the longing of their hearts.
